After You Relocate

During the First Week After Moving

- Locate police and fire stations as well as hospitals and gas stations near your home.
- Scout your new neighborhood for shopping areas.
You may need furniture, tools, or house wares unexpectedly.
- Call the Department of Sanitation in your new town to find out which day the trash is collected. Also ask whether your new community has recycling programs.
- Seek out new service providers such as a bank, cleaners, veterinarian.
- Register to vote. Call your local board of elections for specific registration information. Ask them how to notify your previous voting district of your change of address.
- If you have moved into a different state, contact the Department of Motor Vehicles to exchange your driver's license.
- Call your Chamber of Commerce for helpful information on: schools, cable service, cultural events and community activities, Libraries and parks, and availability of emergency calling services, such as 911.
- Provide your new doctor and dentist with your medical history. You may need to request your file from your previous doctor/dentist.
- Transfer insurance policies to an agent in your new community. You may also wish to make a detailed list of your belongings, their value, and your coverage.
- Give your new home a good cleaning.
- Moving can be stressful. Watch for effects on family members and pets so you can give comfort and a helping hand.
